

STOCK POTS

Our classic stock pots feature a sturdy, stainless steel construction. Safely store most foods without fear of corrosion or pitting. Strong, welded loop handles for safe pick-up and easy transport. Flat covers allow for convenient stacking.

Eliminate burning and scorching with POLAR WARE's innovative Heat-Rite Stock Pots. A 1/8" thick aluminum pad encased in the base provides more even heat distribution and resistance to scratching. Stainless steel vessels offer long-lasting beauty and function.

Choose from a wide range of stock pot sizes and capacities. Matching covers available.

Our Heat-Rite Stock Pots feature a 1/8" thick aluminum pad "sandwiched" by stainless steel to offer better heat distribution. Exclusively by POLAR WARE.
